you are thinking about buying a used car, you should start the process of getting insurance at the same time, if not before getting the automobile. The new automobile vs. They ... although private sellers do not care if the buyer is secured, it is up to the buyer to have insurance coverage before putting the key in the ignition. Civil liability coverage protects other parties if the insured is responsible for the damage, but does not offer any protection for the insured. Drivers who own cars with new security features, such as backup chambers and higher safety scores, have more cheap insurance.
